

	Female	Female or Male	Male
Wg	52-54	55-63	64-66
Crown	Grayish olive, contrasting slightly with the back		Grayish, contrasting moderately to markedly with the back
Concealed crown patch	Absent (Aug-Mar), or indistinctly defined, small (0-8 mm long), pale rufous (Mar-July) See Fig. 281, p516.		Usually distinctly defined, moderate in size (2-12 mm in Aug-Mar to 5-13 mm in Mar-Jul), and medium-dark rufous, rufous of individual feathers extending <5 mm from the base See Fig. 281, p516 and Fig. 260, p450
Chin and throat	Buffy whitish to white		Pale to moderately bright yellow
Back	Brownish-olive to dull olive		Greenish-olive
Breast & flanks	Pale buffy yellow		Moderately bright yellow

Notes:

1. Easiest to age before sexing.
2. Intermediates difficult to micro-age or sex.